REGISTER OF MEMBERS' INTERESTS

THE RELEVANT AUTHORITIES (DISCLOSABLE PECUNIARY INTERESTS) REGULATIONS 2012

Your election or appointment to office. You must within 28 days of becoming aware of any changes to the interests specified above provide written notification to the Monitoring Officer of that change. The Register of Interests is maintained by the Monitoring Officer in accordance with Section 29 of the Localism Act 2011 and will be published on the Council's website. If you have a disclosable pecuniary interest and you consider that disclosure of that interest could lead to you or any person connected with you, being subject to violence or intimidation, you may apply to the Council's Monitoring Officer to exclude details of the interest from the published register, (but it may state that the Member has an interest, the details of which are being withheld). In certain circumstances, failure to register or to declare a "declarable pecuniary interest" is a criminal offence. So is speaking and voting, unless you have a dispensation. This is punishable on conviction by a fine of up to £5,000 and/or disqualification as a councillor for up to five years.
