

Referral and investigation statistics

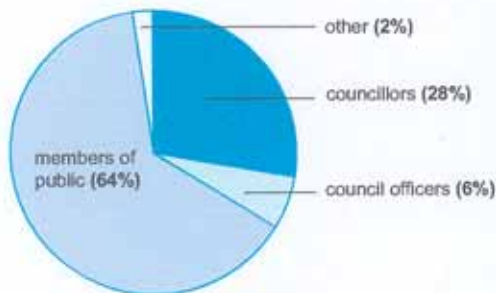

The Standards Board for England received 304 allegations in March, bringing the total number of allegations for the 2005-06 financial year to 3,836.

The following charts show referral and investigation statistics for that period.

Authority of subject member in allegations referred for investigation

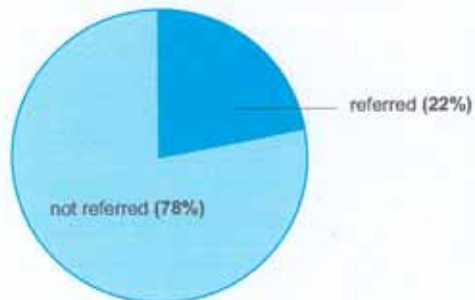

Source of allegations received

Nature of allegations referred for investigation

Allegations referred for investigation

Final findings

