

APPENDIX

Paragraphs*

3(1) – You must treat others with respect;

3(2) (b) A Member must not bully any person;

4 – A Member must not in his official capacity, or any other circumstance, conduct themselves in a manner which could reasonably be regarded as bringing his office or authority into disrepute;

5 – A Member must not conduct himself in a manner which could reasonably be regarded as bringing his office or authority into disrepute;

6 – A Member must not use or attempt to use his position as a Member improperly to confer on or secure for himself or any other person, an advantage or disadvantage and must when using or authorising the use by others of the resources of his authority act in accordance with his authority's reasonable requirements and ensure that such resources are not used improperly for political purposes; and must have regard to any applicable Local Authority Code of Publicity under the Local Government Act 1986;

8 – A Member with a personal interest in any matter who attends the meeting of the authority at which the matter is considered, must disclose to that meeting, the existence and nature of that interest at the commencement of that consideration, or when the interest becomes apparent;

10 (a) – A Member with a prejudicial interest in any matter must withdraw from the room or chamber where a meeting is being held whenever it becomes apparent that the matter is being considered at that meeting, unless she/he has obtained dispensation from the Standards Committee at the responsible authority.

10 (1) – A Member with a personal interest in a matter also has a prejudicial interest in that matter if the interest is one which a member of the public with knowledge of the relevant facts would reasonably regard as so significant that it is likely to prejudice a Member's judgement of the public interest.

12 (a) – A Member with a prejudicial interest in any matter must withdraw from the room or chamber where a meeting is being held whenever it becomes apparent that the matter is being considered at that meeting unless he has obtained a dispensation from the authority's Standards Committee.
